

Name: _____

Date: _____

Drama Vocabulary

Across

6. a trial hearing given to a singer, actor, or other performer to test suitability for employment, professional training or competition, etc.

7. a building, part of a building, or outdoor area for housing dramatic presentations, stage entertainments, or motion-picture shows.

13. to compose and perform or deliver without previous preparation; extemporize

14. a garment covering part of the front of the body and tied at the waist, for protecting the wearer's clothing:

15. to select actors for (a play, motion picture, or the like).

17. a unit of action or a segment of a story in a play, motion picture, or television show.

19. anything said or done, on or off stage, that is followed by a specific line or action:

20. a bulletin board, as in a theater, on which notices are posted announcing rehearsals, changes in the cast,

21. a group of persons singing in unison. (in an opera, oratorio, etc.) such

Down

1. A person or persons in a show production

2. a theater, concert hall, or auditorium

3. the arch that separates a stage from the auditorium.

4. dramatic performances as a branch of art; the drama

5. anything said or done, on or off stage, that is followed by a specific line or action:

8. a session of exercise, drill, or practice, usually private, in preparation for a public performance, ceremony

9. a number of small pieces of wood for filling interstices, or for spacing, joining, or reinforcing members.

10. any composition, as a poem, in which a single person speaks alone.

11. dress or garb characteristic of another period, place, person, etc., as worn on the stage or at balls.

12. a fight between two persons or animal

16. the part of a play performed by such a group or individual.

18. a notice of rehearsal posted by the stage manager.