

Name: _____

Date: _____

Dramatic Elements

Across

3. the place and time where the events of the drama takes place

7. someone whose tragic flaw causes him/her to have a downfall

9. introduction to the play

10. a long speech of at least 10 lines said by one character to a group

Down

1. someone whispers to another character so other characters on stage can't hear him/her

2. instructions written into the script of a play, indicating stage actions, movements of performers, or production requirements

4. relieves the dramatic tension

5. a flaw in the tragic hero of a tragedy that brings the tragic hero to ruin or sorrow

6. a character is talking to himself on stage allowing the audience access to his/her thoughts

8. the story of a tragic hero