

Name: _____

Dreams

Across

2. an often scarier version of a nightmare

4. the act or state of walking, eating, or performing other motor acts while asleep, of which one is unaware upon awakening

10. A state of dreaming in which the dreamer knows that he or she is dreaming

11. a succession of images, thoughts, or emotions passing through the mind during sleep

12. WW. electroencephalograph

Down

1. The part of the brain in which the illusion of dreams occurs

3. a scientist that studies the brain

5. Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder

6. REM Behavior Disorder

7. Rapid Eye Movement

8. a bad dream, often caused by stress or anxiety

9. a specialized, impulse-conducting cell that is the functional unit of the nervous system