

Name: _____

Date: _____

Drivers Ed Vocab

Across

4. What alerts you to the changes in the condition or use of the roadway AHEAD?
6. Each side of the center lane is marked by parallel solid and broken yellow lines and with white arrows that point alternately left and right. What is this lane called?
8. What specifies the minimum number of passengers required (2 to 3 or more) to use the restricted lane?
9. What signal must you either stop or slow down at, depending on the color of the light?
10. What are used to control traffic by indicating who has been granted right-of-way?

Down

1. In cities, you will find _____ at busy intersections.
2. What regulates or controls the movement of traffic?
3. What sign is one you can understand without knowing another language?
5. What identifies roadways and routes: provides information about mileage to certain destination; points out roadside services, such as rest stops and service stations; and directs you to recreational areas, such as nearby sites of interest?
7. Double-dashed (broken) yellow lines are used to mark what?

Word Bank

pedestrian signals

traffic signals

guide sign

high-occupancy-vehicle (HOV) sign

reversible lane

international sign

warning sign

flashing traffic signal

shared left-turn lane

regulatory sign