

Name: _____

Date: _____

Drug Unit

Across

2. A group of drugs that produce relaxation, pleasure and pain relief are called _____

7. Drug _____ is to use something in a way that is unintended or harmful

8. An illegal opioid that has no medical use

9. An emergency medication used to reverse the effects of an opioid overdose and restore breathing.

11. A _____ is a substance other than food that changes the function of your body

13. To _____ means to have a heavy consumption of something in a short period of time

14. _____ carry messages from one part of your body to another.

15. The _____ contains the brain and spinal cord.

16. The part of your brain responsible for your respiration

Down

1. An _____ is an increase in the number of people affected by a disease or condition in a smaller population

3. The largest part of your brain _____

4. There are about 600 of these in each cigarette

5. A _____ is something we know causes cancer

6. The brain's response to not have a drug. Without it the user does not feel well or normal.

10. Needing an increase amount of something in order to achieve the same "high" or "rush" is known as _____

12. Part of your brain that contains your memories