

Drugs, Depression, and Suicide

Across

- 4. Choice of use is no longer an option and has become a way of life
- 7. Drugs that disrupt a users perception of reality
- 9. Problems associated with using the substance begin to appear
- 10. The medical science that involves diagnosis and treatment of mental illnesses
- 11. Factors that can shield from drug use
- 13. Drugs that cause a user's body and mind to slow down
- 15. The lack of substance use is called
- 16. Factors that can lead to drug use

- 17. Thoughts and behaviors that include suicidal thinking, attempts, and completed suicide
- 18. The ability to become strong, healthy, and successful after something bad happens to you

Down

- 1. A medical condition that leads to intense feelings of despair; these feelings don't go away on their own, and are not necessarily related to a particular life event.
- 2. A diagnosable illness that is characterized by its alterations in thinking, mood, or behavior

- 3. Use is more frequent and obsessive behavior starts
- 5. Drugs that make the user hyper and alert
- 6. A common _____ of depression is that it only occurs when bad things happen
- 8. Feeling sad, empty, anxious, and helpless are some _____ of depression
- 12. Includes experimentation to see what its like and recreational use also can occur
- 14. 1-800-273-8255 is the National ____ Prevention Lifeline

Word Bank

- |                 |                   |            |            |               |
|-----------------|-------------------|------------|------------|---------------|
| Abuse           | Hallucinogens     | Use        | No use     | Misperception |
| Misuse          | Suicidal Behavior | Suicide    | Psychiatry | Symptoms      |
| Mental disorder | Protective        | Risk       | Stimulants | Depressants   |
| Dependency      | Resilience        | Depression |            |               |