

Drugs and Medicines

Across

6. uncomfortable physical and psychological symptoms produced when a physically dependent drug user stops using drugs

8. a condition in which a person can no longer control his or her drug use

9. a condition in which a user needs more of a drug to feel the same effect felt when first using the drug

10. a state in which the body relies on a given drug in order to function

11. a medicine made by a company other than the company that developed the original medicine

12. any substance that causes a change in a person's physical or psychological state

13. when a drug reacts with another drug, food, or dietary supplement such that the effect of one of the substances in greater or smaller

14. any effect that is caused by a drug and that is different from the drug's intended effect

Down

1. any medicine that can be bought without a prescription

2. a state of emotionally or mentally needing a drug in order to function

3. a written order from doctor for a specific medicine

4. any drug used to cure, prevent, or treat illness or discomfort

5. describes a drug or medicine that affects that brain and changes how a person perceives, thinks or feels

7. the chemical component that gives a medicine its action