

EC-Chapter 3; Sex and Gender

Across

1. Who is the famous Olympian who transitioned from male to female? (87)
4. When the male body is privileged, men dominate over women and children there is gendered division of labor, and aggression is acceptable. (116)
7. What is a standardized belief that a certain group of people are a specific way or all behave similarly to each other? (88)
12. Societal expectations of what are appropriate traits, characteristics, and behaviors of boys versus girls is what? (86)
15. Stereotypically who would be the once staying home cooking and cleaning? (90)
17. The stress on women's mental and physical health that results from balancing the many roles is called what? (94)
18. Stereotypically who would be the one mowing the lawn? (90)
19. A man being prejudice or discrimination again a woman can be called what? (95)
21. A theory called _____ was developed to illuminate the issue of how gender stereotypes can have extremely negative effects on people. (90)
22. An attempt to suppress their feelings and avoid admitting to their true gender identity, which doesn't fit their body's appearance is what? (87)
24. _____ children hold less stereotyped beliefs about gender. (101)

26. At a very young age they can accurately label their gender as "boy" or "girl". (100)
27. The meaning that a person possesses traditional masculine traits and also traditional feminine traits. (104)
28. A study that compiles the finding of many diverse studies on a topic and statistically analyzes the overall magnitude of the findings. (99)
29. _____ children follow traditional gender expectations and hold traditional gender beliefs. (101)
30. _____ is characterized by positive or kind acts which nevertheless reveal views of women as in some way inferior. (95)
- Down
2. _____ is the argument that men and women resemble each other much more than is popularly believed. (99)
3. _____ states that boys and girls learn very quickly what is expected of them in terms of gendered behavior, traits, and abilities. (101)
5. Hannah was born a male but now identifies as a female. (87)
6. _____ is the belief that males inherently have more value and rights than women. (97)
8. This theory states that reinforced behaviors are more likely to be repeated. (102)
9. A person's sense of being male or female is what? (86)
10. _____ is an overt negative or unkind act that reveals an attitude of bias against women. (95)

11. The belief that heterosexuality is normal and other sexualities are not is _____. (94)
13. When someone strives to maintain ties with supportive family members.
14. What is the meaning of inherent or reflecting the natural order of things? (89)
16. Kyle was born a female but now identifies as a male. (87)
20. What refers to the biological aspects of what makes us male or female? (84)
23. A person who feels their gender is the opposite of their biological sex are referred to as what? (86)
25. Girls who enter _____, the start of menstruation earlier than their peers are more likely to suffer from anxiety, depression, and eating disorders. (111)