

ECONOMICS CROSSWORD PUZZLE

Across

- 2. Tools, machines and skills, knowledge and training of human beings
CAPITAL
- 4. There is no such thing as a free lunch
- 8. The government makes all the decisions
COMMAND
- 9. Sending jobs overseas because we can get goods cheaper
- 10. Things used to produce goods and services
PRODUCTIVE
- 13. This allocation strategy allows people to receive a resource if they are 1st in line
1ST COME 1ST
- 15. The value of the next best alternative given up when we make a choice
OPPORTUNITY
- 16. The available options we must choose from
TRADE

- 18. A basic condition that exist when unlimited wants exceed limited productive resources
 - 19. Things that make life easier or better
 - 20. This allocation strategy can be handled quickly and gives everyone who wants it an equal opportunity
RANDOM
- Down
- 1. To desire something and be able to pay for it
 - 3. This allocation strategy allows resources to be distributed based on need or merit
PERSONAL
 - 5. The physical abilities and time of human beings available to produce goods and services
 - 6. The extra money you pay when you take out a loan

- 7. This allocation strategy can be used to distribute resources to the person who wins
- 11. Individuals have freedom to start businesses and people can make choices BUT government is involved for safety, regulations, law, and defense
MIXED
- 12. These are things necessary for survival
- 14. Wanting more of a good than producers are willing to make or can make so there is a short supply
- 17. Gifts of nature and natural resources