

EDEN KIDS PARTS OF SPEECH

Across

5. What do we call a word that tells us more about the verb?
 7. When an action is complete, we say the verb is in what form?
 10. These words join simple sentences into complex sentences.
 12. This word refers to WHEN the action takes place.
 15. What do we call a word that tells us more about the noun?
 17. If a word begins with one of these, we use "an" as a determiner.
 18. Another word for an article is a ...

19. Which of these is NOT a noun? Proper, Abstract, Collective, General.

Down

1. The verb form of "advice", which sounds a little different, is:
 2. Give one word for brothers and sisters.
 3. True or false: verbs are states of DOING and BEING.
 4. What tense is this sentence in: Yesterday, it was cold and wet.
 6. We can use these words instead of the noun or the proper noun.

8. This type of verb helps the main verb and gives us tense and number.

9. What tense is this sentence in: Tomorrow, I will try even harder.
 11. What tense is this sentence in: Today, it is a little warmer.
 13. Every proper noun must begin with one of these letters.
 14. How many kinds of nouns are there?
 16. An informal, South African interjection used for a range of emotions.