

ELA 9 Poetry and Shakespeare Vocabulary

Across

4. A type of figurative language where a writer or speaker addresses a person or object that is not physically present
 8. Five sets of unstressed and then stressed syllables in a line
 10. A conversation between two or more people within a plot line
 11. The literal or dictionary definition of a word
 19. A word that imitates the sound of the thing describe
 21. The emotional or implied meaning of a word that is based on culture and personal experiences
 23. A pair of lines one after the other that rhyme
 24. A type of poetry that has three unrhymed lines of five, seven, and five syllables
 25. A type of figurative language that joins two opposite ideas together to make a point
 26. A pattern of a unstressed and then stressed syllable
 27. A type of poetry that praises people, nature, or things in an elaborate and formal style

30. A type of character whose qualities contrast with another character
 32. A sound in poetry where two or more words close to each other repeat the same vowel sounds
 33. A type of poem that has a abab, cdcd, efef, gg pattern
 34. A series of words which begin with the same consonant sound
Down
 1. A type of figurative language where exaggeration is used to make a point
 2. Written or spoken language without any structure
 3. Writing that uses rhythm and rhyme
 5. A type of figurative language that appeals to sight, sound, taste, touch, or smell
 6. A type of figurative language where a thing is given human characteristics
 7. When a speaker or writer means the opposite of what they say
 9. A type of figurative language that makes an implied comparison between two things that are unrelated but share common characteristics

12. Hints given in the plot about what will happen later
 13. A type of figurative language where the audiences knows something that the characters do not
 14. When a character in a drama shares their innermost thoughts aloud with the audience
 15. A type of poem which is written in iambic pentameter but it does not rhyme
 16. Repeating consonant sounds within words and phrases
 17. A type of figurative language that compares the similarities of two different things
 18. When something happens that is the opposite of expectations
 20. A type of hero who has to confront their downfall either because of fate or their own mistakes
 22. A type of drama that is based on human suffering
 28. A group of lines within a poem
 29. A type of poem that does not have any rhythm or rhyme
 31. The pattern of stressed and unstressed syllables within a poem

Word Bank

Foreshadowing	Situational Irony	Iamb	Apostrophe	Consonance
Dramatic Irony	Free Verse	Foil	Shakespearean Sonnet	Oxymoron
Tragedy	Tragic Hero	Iambic Pentameter	Onomatopoeia	Personification
Stanza	Couplet	Verse	Simile	Denotation
Blank Verse	Hyperbole	Dialogue	Metaphor	Rhythm
Ode	Verbal Irony	Soliloquy	Prose	Connotation
Imagery	Alliteration	Haiku	Assonance	