

Name: _____

Date: _____

ELA Cross Word

Across

1. writing that requires the author to investigate a topic; collect, generate, and evaluate evidence; and establish a position on the topic in a concise manner.
7. Universally agreed upon rules, methods, or processes
9. author describes something in order of space
10. using as few words as necessary to convey the point the writer is trying to get across

Down

2. writing that breaks a large idea into parts to help the reader see how they work together as a whole

3. author describes a topic by giving examples, features, and characteristics
4. presents facts, discusses ideas, or explains a process
5. writing meant to convince the reader to adopt a particular point of view or take a particular course of action
6. gives instructions on how to complete a task, solve a problem, or perform a procedure
8. represented by three dots (...) They are used to show words from a quote have been omitted for the sake of space