

Name: _____

Date: _____

EMU & Seizure Patient Care

Across

3. Another name for gabapentin.
7. Another name for phenytoin.
12. A state of muscle extension (stiffening movement)
14. Suction set up, padded rails, fall precautions, bed in low position:
15. A state of continuous seizure activity > 5 minutes, considered a medical emergency.
16. Caffeine, blinking lights, loud noises, poor adjusted lights are all seizure _____.
17. An event that can be mistaken for a seizure.
19. What does EMU stand for?

Down

1. Fast acting drug given IV for seizure.
2. What is AED for seizures?
4. Continuous monitoring of the EMU patient.
5. Given to patient and family at discharge for how to manage seizures and seizure prevention at home.
6. Doc flow sheet name where you can document after a patient has a seizure.

8. Characterized by at least two unprovoked seizures >24 hours apart. A condition in which seizures occur without known, correctable cause(s), thus seizures occur and reoccur without treatment.
9. Sustained muscle contractions alternating with relaxation
10. Experience before the onset of a generalized seizure; often described as a
11. Another name for levetiracetam.
13. A sudden abnormal synchronized discharge of cerebral neurons.
18. IV seizure drug used frequently in acute care for NPO patients