

Name: _____

Date: _____

ES13 VOCABULARY TEST REVIEW

Across

2. Highly concentrated plant oils with properties that can have various effects on the skin

4. These ingredients/components cause the actual changes in the appearance of the skin

6. These have a lower alcohol content and are beneficial for dry and mature skin, as well as for sensitive skin

7. Articles intended to be rubbed, poured, sprinkled, or otherwise applied to the human body or any part thereof for cleansing, beautifying, promoting attractiveness, or altering the appearance

9. Fatty materials used to lubricate and moisturize the skin

13. This comes from the hamamelis shrub and is good for toning the skin

19. These ingredients allow products to spread, give them body and texture, and give them a specific form, such as a lotion, cream, or gel

21. Insoluble pigments made by combining a dye with an inorganic material and are commonly used in colorful cosmetics

22. This comes from petroleum sources

23. Soaps and/or detergents that clean the skin

24. One of the most common ingredients in skin care products, used for dry, aging skin

25. Colors/colorants listed on ingredient labels as "D&C" or "FD&C"

Down

1. This is derived from the comfrey plant or uric acid and has healing properties

3. BHA that originates from sweet birch, willow bark, and wintergreen, and which has exfoliating and antiseptic properties

5. Ancient healing practice using essential oils and aromas from plants to treat the body, mind, and spirit

8. This uses ingredients such as herbs, vitamins, and oils combined with clay, seaweed, or hydrating bases that treat the skin

10. Lubricant ingredients derived from plant oils or animal fats

11. These involve the use of keratolytic enzymes, which help speed up the breakdown of keratin

12. Exfoliating by physically rubbing dead cells off of the skin

14. Widely-used noncomedogenic oil derived from a desert shrub and used for healing

15. Chemical compounds formed by a number of small molecules, and commonly used in delivery systems

16. These are produced from combining fatty acids and fatty alcohols

17. Plant extract used for sensitive skin

18. Spreading agents and carrying bases necessary to the formulation of a cosmetic

20. These have a higher alcohol content and are designed for use on normal and combination skin to tighten the skin