

Name: _____

Date: _____

Early Childhood- Psychosocial

Across

3. Erik son's third developmental stage where children feel guilty when they cannot succeed in new endeavors
5. Johnny often picks up extra toys at daycare because he gets a sticker when he does.
7. _____ is timeless and universal, but children do not get enough of it.
8. _____ behavior can lead to various types of aggression.

9. Many cultures have different _____ to get children to regulate their emotions.
10. At home, Robert knows better than to talk about his problems or question what his dad says. Robert loves his father, but thinks he is coldhearted and can be mean.
11. An illness or a disorder of the mind.
12. A child's understanding of sex differences.

Down

1. Empathy leads to _____, extending kindness or help without benefitting oneself.
2. Cece loves creating paintings and hangs them on her walls at home for her own enjoyment.
4. A quite, shy child might become physically ill without catching the flu do to:
6. _____ play builds on pretending and social interest, allowing children to act out various roles.

Word Bank

Intrinsic motivation motivations
gender schema authoritarian initiative versus guilt sociodramatic

extrinsic motivation
prosocial behavior

psychopathology play antisocial
internalizing problems