

Early Development

Across

2. Shorter stature, squinted eyes and flattened facial features are all physical characteristics of this genetic disorder.
4. DNA- whose job it is to store and transmit genetic information, is made up of phosphates and?
8. This researcher was trying to figure out how we made sense out of the world.
9. This risk factor during pregnancy is the most common widely known preventable cause of mental retardation.

10. When examining twin studies, it was found that this plays a larger role than the environment that they grew up in.

12. This concept has to do with the idea of what influences our development.

13. The crucial support that is given to someone to help them succeed is called

Down

1. According to Piaget, each developmental stage is different. At which stage, does he say that stranger anxiety is developed?

3. 22 pairs of these can be found in the human body.

5. This gender tends to have more genetic issues, due to the fact that one chromosome carries much less information than the other.

6. This parenting style is met with low expectations and acting more as a "best buddy" rather than a parent.

7. 80% of maltreated children will show this form of attachment when they are tested under the strange situation experiment.

11. This researcher had a theory that included 8 stages of development.