

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Earth Moon and Sun Crossword (from Extra Credit Menu)

Across

3. twice a year day and night are equal lengths

5. occurs because of the Earth's tilt

12. different _____ of the moon

14. movement of one object around another

15. the moon is losing light

16. a thin part of the moon is lit

18. tide that occurs during third and first quarter moon

Down

1. imaginary line that goes straight through the Earth

2. tide that occurs during new and full moon phases

4. twice a year the sun is farthest away from Earth's equator

6. the moon is half lit on the left side

7. the moon is half lit on the right side

8. the moon is completely lit during this phase

9. the spinning of an object on its axis

10. the moon is gaining light

11. the moon is completely dark during this phase

13. a large portion of the moon is lit

17. the Earth's axis is on a _____

Word Bank

waxing

new moon

crescent

full moon

first quarter

phases

axis

waning

gibbous

revolution

third quarter

solstice

tilt

rotation

seasons

Neap Tide

equinox

spring tide