

Earth Science Terms

Across

2. Coordinate lines that run east to west and are parallel with each other

7. Coordinate lines that run north and south.

9. The arrangement of elements on a table by their atomic number.

10. A mountain or hill that is full of lava that could burst at any time.

11. The neutral charge in an atom.

13. The arrangement of natural and artificial physical features of an area.

14. A sudden shake in the earth's ground caused by a shift in plate tectonics.

15. The theory of continents splitting apart.

Down

1. The imaginary line in England that has a degree of 0.

3. The emission of ionizing radiation.

4. The imaginary line that splits the earth into north and south halves.

5. The negative charge in an atom

6. An extended break in a body of rock.

8. The basic unit of a chemical element.

12. The positive charge in an atom.