

Eating Disorder Crossword

Across

2. The main type of Outpatient treatment for minors is.

3. Many people with Eating Disorders have body image _____.

6. This is one of the genes responsible for genetic Eating Disorders.

7. This type of compensation includes not eating for long periods of time.

10. This type of Eating Disorder includes eating large amounts of food with no compensation methods.

12. This type of Eating Disorder sees the largest amounts of weight loss in patients.

13. All Eating Disorders have this in common, _____ around food.

14. Having a _____ family can increase your chances at getting an Eating Disorder.

Down

1. When entering the Inpatient program, most patients go on _____ for around a week to become more medically stable.

4. For both Anorexia and Bulimia, weight _____ is a fear.

5. To prevent Eating Disorders, you eating should be _____.

8. In Inpatient treatment, the main focus is weight _____.

9. If a member of your family has or has had an Eating Disorder, you are _____ likely to get an Eating Disorder.

11. On average, how many months do individuals stay at Residential programs?