

Name: _____

Date: _____

Ecology Crossword

Across

- 2. a relationship where one organism benefits and the other is harmed
- 6. a relationship where one organism benefits and the other is unaffected
- 7. complex interactions between organisms competing for food that may involve several food chains (two words)
- 12. an organism that eats other organisms
- 14. the specific area where a particular species lives
- 15. a relationship that benefits both organisms

Down

- 1. organisms that consume producers (two words)
- 3. organisms that consume primary consumers (two words)
- 4. the number of individuals a particular area can support over a long period of time (two words)
- 5. _____ and _____ affect the abilities of wildlife to successfully reproduce and maintain their populations over time
- 8. the general area where a specific plant or animal lives
- 9. _____ get energy by converting sunlight, carbon dioxide, and water into sugar
- 10. parts of the environment that have similar plants, animals, and climates
- 11. organisms that are eaten by others
- 13. the study of living and nonliving parts of the environment and how they affect each other