Name:	Date:
-------	-------

Econ Ch 14 - Pt 2

Across

- 3. Required govt spending by permanent laws
- 11. Money provided by one level of government to another to be spent for a given purpose
- 12. A tax on the estate, or total value of the money and property, of a person who has died
- 13. Federal spending on programs that are controlled through the regular budget process
- 14. tax collected on goods that are imported
- 15. budget for major capital, or investment, expenditures

17. Policies for which Congress has obligated itself to pay X level of benefits to Y number of recipients. Social Security benefits are an example.

Down

- 1. a tax on money or property that one living person gives to another
- 2. Budget in which revenues are equal to spending
- 4. the part of the economy that involves the transactions of individuals and businesses
- 5. the person who assigns value to property for tax purposes

- 6. A 12-month pd, October through Septmeber, for planning the federal budget
- 7. budget for day-to-day expenses
- 8. a plan for the federal government's revenues and spending for the coming year
- 9. A federal and state assistance program that pays for health care services for people who cannot afford them.
- 10. Benefits given by the government directly to individuals.
- 16. money charged for the use of a good or service