

Name: _____

Date: _____

Economics

Across

2. the extra cost of adding one unit
 4. the most desirable alternative given up as the result of a decision
 5. the resources that are used to make goods and services
 6. a person who decides how to combine resources to create goods and services
 9. the principal that limited amounts of goods and services are available to meet unlimited wants
 10. a situation in which people want more of a good or service than producers are willing to supply at a particular price
 12. the human-made objects used to create other goods and services
 14. the extra benefit of adding on unit

17. the actions or activities that one person performs for another
 20. anything that people use to make things or do work
 21. the effort people devote to tasks for which they are paid

Down

1. a graph that shows alternative ways to use an economy's productive resources
 3. the knowledge and skills gained from education and experience
 7. any human-made resource used to produce goods and services
 8. all natural resources used to produce goods and services
 11. the study of how people seek to satisfy their needs and wants by making choices

13. something that people desire but that is not necessary for survival
 15. the idea that a country that produces guns has fewer resources to produce butter, and vice versa
 16. something essential for survival such as food or clothing
 18. the physical objects that people businesses, or governments buy
 19. the alternatives that we give up when we choose one course of action over another