

Economics

Across

3. people have the freedom to make their own economic choices
 5. this requires that choices be made
 7. one owner
 10. businesses base most decisions on what will create the largest profit
 12. by resources
 15. authorized by law
 17. people make choices on how to use limited resources, decide the ownership of resource, and structure markets
 18. determines who acquires goods and services
 19. own the resources

22. the amount of goods and services that consumers are willing and able to buy at a certain price
 24. two or more owners
 25. federal communication commission

Down

1. people who own and control their own property
 2. when businesses compete
 4. determines price
 6. individual make decisions about desired goods and services because they are limited

8. individuals must consider the value of what is given up when making a choice
 9. business will make and sell what customers want and are willing to buy
 11. environmental protection agency
 13. resources available and consumer preferences determine what is produced
 14. federal trade commission
 16. the using of goods and services
 20. the amount of goods and services that producers are willing and able to buy at a certain price
 21. are used to change economic behavior
 23. natural, human, capital

Word Bank

demand	economy	competition	households	corporation
ftc	incentives	opportunity cost	private property	partnership resources	fcc	supply	profit motive	production supply and demand	individual choice	producer	consumption	scarcity
price	epa	consumer sovereignty	proprietorship	choice