

Economics Crossword

Across

2. the government decides what will be produced, how much will be produced, and how much goods and services will cost
 7. where the entire activity of buying and selling takes place
 9. the number of consumers who want it
 11. the way goods and services are produced and consumed
 12. the limited amount of resources available

14. the benefit you give up by choosing to do one thing instead of another
 16. producers are free to decide what to produce, and consumers are free to buy whatever they need and want
 17. someone who acquires goods and services for his or her own personal use

Down

1. producers battling over who can make the most profit
 3. the idea that consumers will want or need what they are offering
 4. the spread of goods and services

5. how goods and services are produced
 6. the amount of something that is available
 8. how goods and services are traded and paid for
 10. the process of developing newer, better things
 13. someone who makes goods or offers services to others
 15. the financial gain received by selling something for more than it costs to make

Word Bank

competition	command economy	innovation	consumer market economy	demand	profit	market distribution	producer	supply	exchange
economy	production	opportunity cost	incentive scarcity			