

Economics Crossword Puzzle

Across

- 4. The concept that people have the right and privilege to control their possessions as they wish
- 5. Laws requiring companies to provide full information about their products
- 7. The concept that everyone can compete in the marketplace
- 8. The concerns of the public as a whole
- 9. The force that encourages people and organizations to improve their material well-being

- 10. The concept that people may decide what and when they want to buy and sell

Down

- 1. The concept of giving everyone the same legal rights
- 2. A private organization that tries to persuade public officials to act or vote according to group members' interests
- 3. The concept that people may decide what agreements they want to enter into
- 6. The rivalry among sellers to attract customers while lowering costs

Word Bank

- |                  |                         |                        |
|------------------|-------------------------|------------------------|
| Competition      | Open opportunity        | Public disclosure laws |
| Legal equality   | Interest group          | Profit motive          |
| Public interests | Private property rights | Voluntary exchange     |
| Free contract    |                         |                        |