

Name: _____

Date: _____

Economics Vocabulary

Across

2. Something owed or due; typically money
5. To make available to someone; provide
7. A person who buys and uses goods
8. An estimate of income & expenditure for a set of time
10. A financial institute that accepts deposits and withdrawals of money

Down

1. Supplying a public need such as transportation, communication, or utilities
3. A sales tax paid to a governing body for the sales of certain goods and services
4. The system of how money is and used within a particular country
6. A person who makes a supply or good
9. The consumers need or desire to own the product or experience the service