

Economics

Across

- 4. The central state government determines the goods produced, prices of goods, services provided and the wages of the workers
- 8. The shortage of supply.
- 9. Trading without using money
- 10. an economic system in which economic decisions are guided by the changes in prices that occur as individual buyers and sellers interact in the marketplace to determine the sale of goods.
- 11. relationship between the quantity of a commodity that produces wish to sell at various prices and the quantity that consumers wish to buy.

Down

- 1. The study of how people make decisions given the resources that are provided to them.
- 2. People who make and sell your products
- 3. Tangible goods that are used to create additional goods
- 5. Something from nature that people can use.
- 6. There are no pure command or market economies. To some extent, all economies demonstrate characteristics of both.
- 7. The production of goods and services are based on a particular society's traditional customs or beliefs.