

Economics and Business Crossword

Across

3. workplace participants who provide productive labour in return for wages and entitlements.
6. Approved time away from the workplace, which may be paid or unpaid depending on the type of leave, for example, recreation, sick, bereavement.
7. A higher rate of pay that is offered to employees when they work late nights, early mornings, weekends or public holidays
8. Any measure taken by employers or employees to settle a workplace dispute about working conditions
9. workplace participants who provide productive labour in return for wages and entitlements.

Word Bank

superannuation
Leave
Employees
Trade Union

Anti discrimination law
Employment Contract
National Employment Standards

Penalty Rate
Industrial Action
Unfair Dismissal Law

10. A system of appeal that allows employees to apply for reinstatement or compensation if they believe their employer has dismissed them in a 'harsh, unjust or unreasonable' manner and for reasons other than poor job performance

Down

1. A safety net of 10 minimum conditions that employers must provide when offering employment contracts to employees.
2. A legally binding document between the employee and the employer, which sets out remuneration details such as pay rates, and entitlements like sick leave and annual leave.
4. An organisation established and financed by employees in similar fields to assist them in the workplace in order to increase their bargaining power.
5. A lump sum or regular payments received by retirees from income invested over their working life.