

Name: _____

Date: _____

Edgar Allan Poe

Across

2. Roderick Usher's sister who comes back from the dead.
 3. Montresor seeks ____ from Fortunado for his misdeeds
 4. "The Raven" took place during this time of day.
 12. The narrator's house is destroyed by _____. This means "a large fire"
 14. Many of the narrators in Poe's stories can be considered _____.
 17. The wine Montresor uses to lure Fortunado further into the catacombs.
 19. Poe was ashamed to admit that he suffered this.

20. Roderick's relationship with his wife is _____.

Down

1. Poe married his 13 year old cousin named _____.
 5. Almost every stanza in "The Raven" ended with this word
 6. The narrator in "The Black Cat" writes his story from _____.
 7. Poe's mother died of _____.
 8. The house collapsing after Roderick dies at the end of the story is an example of what?
 9. Poe establishes the _____ in the beginning of The Fall of The House of Usher by describing the observable environment.

10. Where does "The Cask of Amontillado" take place?

11. The narrator's wife in The Black Cat unintentionally convinces him that Pluto is a _____ in disguise.
 13. Poe originally wanted to feature a parrot one of his poems, but replaced it with this bird.
 15. With what did the narrator kill his wife in "The Black Cat?"
 16. The first black cat the narrator befriends before killing it.
 18. Poe was the first American writer to write in this genre.

Word Bank

horror	Madeline	symbolism	tuberculosis	incestuous
conflagration	Virginia	prison	Amontillado	mood
ax	midnight	Italy	raven	Nevermore
unreliable	Pluto	alcoholism	retribution	witch