

Edgar Allen Poe's Ghastly Gory Words

Across

- 4. A type of wine that was used as a bait for Fortunato's murder
- 6. The name of the dead female in 'Fall of the House of Usher'
- 10. The name of the first cat that the narrator of 'the Black Cat' owned
- 11. An annoying phrase that Bart the Raven keeps on saying to Homer the scholar that eventually drove him to a mad frenzy
- 13. The substance that Montresor warned Fortunato before entering the Montresor family catacombs

- 14. A type of narrator in most of the gory stories by Poe
- 15. One of Usher's "favorite romances", that the narrator used to try and calm down Usher

Down

- 1. A type of drug that often appears in Poe's work
- 2. During the narrator's time with Roderick Usher, what was the name of the song that Roderick has composed?
- 3. The Raven was sitting upon the bust of Pallas, otherwise known as _____

- 5. The reason for the narrator's eventual murder of Pluto was because of the spirit of _____
- 7. The name of the dead female in "the Raven"
- 8. What alcohol does Fortunato believed that Luchesi can't tell the difference between amontillado?
- 9. On what holiday does Montresor commit his heinous crime?
- 12. A motif found in most of Poe's work (eg. 'Tell-Tale Heart', 'Black Cat', and 'Fall of the House of Usher')