Educational and Career Exploration

Across
1. A postsecondary school where a student might receive a bachelor's degree, master's, or doctoral degree in a specific discipline.
2. A pathway, which a student selects in high school.
3. Vocational student organization; nonprofit, national organization with state and local chapters that exist to develop leadership skills and good citizenship among members; each organization is composed of vocational students interested in a specific occupational area.
4. Paid employment that is not supervised by school personnel; may or may not be related to the student's career choice.
5. Practices used to prepare for learning and assessment of subject matter.
6. Allows the student the opportunity to observe and participate in activities related to a career field; supervised by school personnel and related to the student's career choice. (May be paid or unpaid)
7. Special skills may be developed through educational programs in the armed services.
8. An academic record; an official record of grades earned during a high school career.
9. A competency-based instructional management system that focuses on the individual student and tracks his/her achievement in relation to a predetermined set of core competencies.
10. A written statement that is accepted as proof of certain facts; often relating to the attainment of specific skills.
11. Edification, Placement, and Retention System – an assessment-advancing program designed to identify the basic skills levels of students as they enter two-year institutions.
12. An advanced 2-year program completed after attainment of a bachelor's degree.
13. Type of college with up to a 2-year programs leading to certificates, diplomas, or associate degrees.
14. Armed Services Vocational Aptitude Battery – is a test developed and maintained by the United States Department of Defense.
15. Education after high school.
16. A written statement that is accepted as proof of certain facts; often relating to the attainment of specific skills.
17. Postsecondary career, educational and financial planning site; provides comprehensive information about all of North Carolina's two and four year postsecondary institutions, financial aid, and application services. This program is a partnership among the University of North Carolina General Administration, the College Foundation of North Carolina, and the State Educational Assistance Authority.

Down
2. An academic record; an official record of grades earned during a high school career.
3. A pathway, which a student selects in high school.
4. A postsecondary school where a student might receive a bachelor's degree, master's, or doctoral degree in a specific discipline.
5. Vocational student organization; nonprofit, national organization with state and local chapters that exist to develop leadership skills and good citizenship among members; each organization is composed of vocational students interested in a specific occupational area.
6. Paid employment that is not supervised by school personnel; may or may not be related to the student's career choice.
8. Allows the student the opportunity to observe and participate in activities related to a career field; supervised by school personnel and related to the student's career choice. (May be paid or unpaid)
9. Special skills may be developed through educational programs in the armed services.
10. An academic record; an official record of grades earned during a high school career.

Across
1. A postsecondary school where a student might receive a bachelor's degree, master's, or doctoral degree in a specific discipline.
2. A pathway, which a student selects in high school.
3. Vocational student organization; nonprofit, national organization with state and local chapters that exist to develop leadership skills and good citizenship among members; each organization is composed of vocational students interested in a specific occupational area.
4. Paid employment that is not supervised by school personnel; may or may not be related to the student's career choice.
5. Practices used to prepare for learning and assessment of subject matter.
6. Allows the student the opportunity to observe and participate in activities related to a career field; supervised by school personnel and related to the student's career choice. (May be paid or unpaid)
7. Special skills may be developed through educational programs in the armed services.
8. An academic record; an official record of grades earned during a high school career.
9. A competency-based instructional management system that focuses on the individual student and tracks his/her achievement in relation to a predetermined set of core competencies.
10. A written statement that is accepted as proof of certain facts; often relating to the attainment of specific skills.
11. Edification, Placement, and Retention System – an assessment-advancing program designed to identify the basic skills levels of students as they enter two-year institutions.
12. An advanced 2-year program completed after attainment of a bachelor's degree.
13. Type of college with up to a 2-year programs leading to certificates, diplomas, or associate degrees.
14. Armed Services Vocational Aptitude Battery – is a test developed and maintained by the United States Department of Defense.
15. Education after high school.
16. A written statement that is accepted as proof of certain facts; often relating to the attainment of specific skills.
17. Postsecondary career, educational and financial planning site; provides comprehensive information about all of North Carolina's two and four year postsecondary institutions, financial aid, and application services. This program is a partnership among the University of North Carolina General Administration, the College Foundation of North Carolina, and the State Educational Assistance Authority.