

Name: _____

Date: _____

Edwin Morgan

Across

1. 'Heavy Light' in the poem 'Winter' is an example of this technique
5. 'Glasgow 5th March' is one of Edwin Morgan's _____ poems
10. Type of punctuation indicating pauses in the drunk man's speech
12. The incident in 'Glasgow 5th March 1971' is described as the _____
13. This word has a double meaning - easy to see, and jagged like broken glass.

14. Features three people with gifts
15. "...cup capsizes" and "persisting patience" are examples of this technique.
16. A disabled man wants to go to the toilet in this poem
17. A drunk man considers the nature of Easter in this poem

Down

2. This poem features a coughing man smoking on one elbow
3. The shopping street where the poet observes the three youngsters

4. This technique describes one line running on to another with no punctuation.
6. "His hands like wet leaves" is an example of this technique
7. The speaker in the poems
8. This is the tense Morgan often uses to make his poems seem like they are happening right now.
9. This word is repeated to show man's struggle to go up the snack bar stairs
11. This seasonal poem uses an outdoor scene to contemplate death