

Name: _____ Date: _____

Eileen Poole's Vocabulary

Across

2. What does the abbreviation MRN mean?
3. What is an everyday word for hypertension that patients might use?
6. If something is in situ, what does that mean? For example, IV in situ.
12. What does the abbreviation BKR stand for?
13. What does the abbreviation ECG stand for?

14. What is the abbreviation for the doctor who is looking after Eileen?

15. What does RMO stand for?

Down

1. What is an everyday word for hypercholesteremia that patients might use?
4. What is an FBC?
5. If a drug is to be taken 'mane', when should it be taken?
7. What subheading would you look for in patient notes if you wanted to find out how and why she has presented for health care.

8. What does the abbreviation CXR stand for?

9. If a patient's vital signs are recorded between the flags was does that mean?

10. What is a term that you could write in a patient's notes that describes things like showering, toileting, shopping, grooming?

11. If a patient needs to go to the toilet but they cannot get out of bed, what would you bring them?