

Name: _____

Date: _____

Eleanor and Park

Across

2. The Asian American protagonist's full name

4. The point of view from an outside perspective

9. A genre of the protagonist's journey(s) from being a child to being an adult.

11. The cartoons traded among the protagonists as a symbol of bringing them closer

12. The adjective used to describe something as being individual and personalised

13. The standards that are forced on both men and women to appear pretty or handsome

14. The home of both protagonists in the beginning of the novel

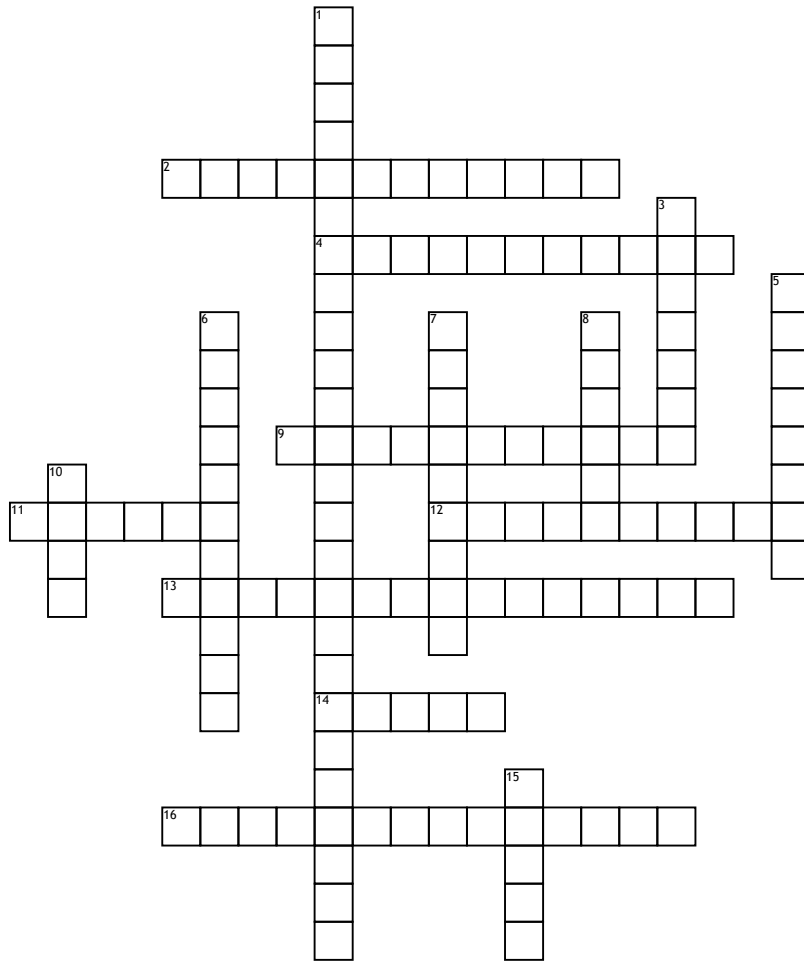

16. The red-headed, fierce protagonist's full name

Down

1. A quote in the novel of what art isn't supposed to be

3. A genre based on love and charm

5. The compilation of music traded between the protagonists used to bring them closer

6. A time in ones' life in between childhood and adulthood

7. Where Eleanor lived at the end of the novel

8. The act of leaving or getting out

10. The noun of two people being infatuated with each other

15. The adjective used to describe something as being humorous

