

Elements & Principles of Design

Across

2. This refers to the size and shape of furnishings in relation to the overall shape and size of a room.
4. These can be horizontal, vertical or diagonal.
7. This is the light that is reflected off of objects.
8. Color, texture, line, shape.
9. This is the placement of furnishings in a way that gives equal weight to both sides of a central point.

10. This is the surface quality of an object

12. This refers to making an furnishing appear more important than the others.
13. This can be geometric, like squares; or organic, like free formed and natural shapes, like mountains.

Down

1. These are guidelines to combine the elements of design.
3. What are the two dimensions of color?

5. This is carrying a decorating theme throughout the room or house giving it a pleasing arrangement.
6. This is the path the viewer's eye takes through the design, often moving toward a focal point.
11. This refers to a repeated pattern of color, line, texture, or shape.