

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Elements and Principles of Design

Across

1. a principle of design where an element is repeated or altered to create visual movement
3. the tools used to achieve the principles of design
9. the most basic element of design that connects two dots
12. an element of design that relates to how something feels or appears to feel
15. a principle of design that is the focal point
16. the most important element of design
17. a principle of design where the elements are in equilibrium

18. identical proportion and arrangement of objects on each side of a center point
19. the repetition of a design in an orderly manner
20. guidelines designers use to create good design using the elements of design

Down

2. arrangement of different but equivalent objects on both sides of a center point
4. a principle of design where the size of objects must be in agreement with each other
5. an element of design that has shape and volume

6. the area around or inside of a form
7. proportions that are unequal ratios are more pleasing than ratios that are equal
8. a principle of design where a common characteristic creates a feeling of cohesiveness
10. the end results when the elements and principles work together to create aesthetically pleasing design
11. a principle of design where change is made to part of a design to keep a design from being boring
13. an element of design that lies within boundaries of a line
14. a principle of design of the ratio of an object to part of the object