

Name: _____

Date: _____

Elements of Drama and Literature / Rhyme and Meter

Across

3. a figure of speech where animals, ideas, or inorganic objects are given human characteristics

5. a speech or comment made by an actor directly to the audience

9. a person who is responsible for the thoughts and actions within a story

11. the list of characters needed

12. one who tells a story

14. the time, place, physical details, and circumstances in which a situation occurs

16. a reference in a literary work to a person, place, or thing in history or another work of literature

17. the main character in a novel, play, story, or poem

19. an extravagant exaggeration

Down

1. the exact meaning of a word

2. a type of figurative language in which a statement is made that one thing is something else

4. a narrative technique that allows a writer to present past events during current events

6. a type of language that varies from the norms of literal language

7. the creative process of developing and executing designs in a production

8. a type of literature

10. the association that comes along with a particular word

13. a pattern of sound that includes repetition of consonant sounds

15. a way the events of a story are conveyed to the reader

18. a word or object that stands for another word or object