

Elements of Narrative Structure!~

Across

- 4. a character who does not change over the course of the story
- 5. hints and warnings that something is going to happen
- 7. a character who is one-sided or stereotypical
- 10. a story interruption that takes the reader back in time
- 13. the feeling the reader gets from the story
- 14. something that suggests a meaning deeper than its literal meaning
- 15. the time and place in which a story occurs

- 16. the main character in the story

- 17. the point in the story where the plot gets more complex and suspense builds
- 18. the conclusion of the story where loose ends are tied up and the story ends
- 19. character or force in conflict with the main character in a story
- 20. the narrator is a character in the story and refers to himself as "I"

Down

- 1. a character who does not change over the course of the story
- 2. a struggle involving more than one person or thing

- 3. the central message about life that the author wishes to convey

- 6. the narrator relates the inner thought and feelings of only ONE character

- 8. the people, animals or imaginary creatures in a story

- 9. beginning of the story - characters are introduced & setting is described

- 11. a character who changes or grows throughout the story

- 12. a fully developed character who exhibits many traits