

Elements of Plot

Across

1. The series of events before the Climax but after the story's beginning.
6. The point of the story where all problems are solved or addressed.
7. The who or what the story is about.
9. After the climax, these events lead to the end.
10. The __ __ __ tagonist is the main character in the story.

Down

2. The name for the main problem or situation the character faces.
3. The background information at the story's beginning
4. The most exciting and suspenseful part of the story.
5. The __ __ tagonist, usually conflicts with the main character and adds to the story complications.
8. What is the series of related events in a story called?