

Emergencies First Aid

Across

- 2. if you have a patient with minor bleeding the first thing you put on the wound is a
- 6. Low blood sugar is known as
- 10. Most accidents that occur at LTC are due to
- 11. When a patient vomits it is called
- 12. All needles should be placed in what types of containers
- 15. a mini stroke is called a
- 16. Prior to patient care the CNA should always _____ the patient

- 17. a cut is known as a
- 18. If you suspect a possible fracture of an extremity you should use a
- 19. a patient who has fallen and has numbness in extremities should have _____ precautions
- 20. the most reliable pulse site is

Down

- 1. a stroke is called a
- 3. If the patient is choking with No air movement they have
- 4. inadequate tissue perfusion is known as

- 5. If a patient is on oxygen you should not allow _____ close to patient
- 7. If the adult patient has a pulse but is not breathing you should give
- 8. if a patient is on low flow oxygen the device used will be a
- 9. if a patient has a nose bleed it is called
- 13. If a patient has Epilepsy they will likely have a
- 14. Hyperglycemia is also known as