

★ Endangered Animals ★

Across

6. This elephant has lost an astounding 70% of its habitat to deforestation for palm oil plantations, agriculture and human settlements. Less than 2000 are estimated to exist. 2 words

7. There are currently only 200-300 of these gorillas left in the wild and they are probably the most critically endangered of the gorilla species. 3 words

8. Out of all of the rhino species this one is the most threatened with extinction with the total population of only 60 surviving in one National Park in Java, Indonesia. 2 words

9. This turtle has lost 90 percent of its population, 80 percent of which has been lost in the past 10 years. As of 1996, the IUCN classified it as a critically endangered species and more recently it is facing extinction. 2 words

10. They are the most trafficked animal in the world, hunted for their scales which can be sold on the black market for up to $3,000/kg. 1 word

Down

1. Critically Endangered with approximately 80% of the population lost in the past 75 years mainly as a result of mass deforestation. This awful trend continues to put pressure on the remaining population of 6,600. 2 words

2. Once referred to as the asian unicorn and one of the greatest zoological discoveries of the 20th century they are now critically endangered. 1 word

3. The only surviving tiger subspecies indigenous to Indonesia and as of 2008 it has been classified by the IUCN as Critically Endangered. 1 word

4. Time is running out for these elusive little sea porpoises, with extinction previously predicted for 2018. 1 word

5. With less than 70 individuals thought to exist today. It is hunted and killed for its beautiful fur, its habitat is being destroyed for human settlement and agricultural practices. 2 words