

Name: _____

Date: _____

Endocrine & Renal Review

Across

- 2. Analgesic used for patients with UTI
6. Increased levels indicates renal impairment
11. Shock wave therapy used to break up renal calculi
12. strong indicator that an elderly patient may have a UTI
13. prostate medication used relieve obstruction and help increase urine flow

Down

- 1. complication of DM; numbness and tingling in extremities
3. Important assessment to gather before and after dialysis
4. disease that often results in renal failure
5. This type of dialysis uses the peritoneal membrane as the dialyzing membrane
7. True or False; patient who have had a TURP should take laxatives post op

- 8. Non-invasive nursing intervention that is used to determine if renal calculi has been passed
9. True or False: Regular and NPH insulin should never be mixed?
10. A patient with hypocalcemia may present with this
14. Lantus is an example of _____ acting insulin
15. During a thyroidectomy, the laryngeal nerve was possibly damaged; the nurse should assess the patients ability to _____