

Endocrine and Nervous System Crossword Puzzle

Across

1. The _____ nerve collects the stimulus and transports it to the brain or spinal cord for interpretation
5. The _____ is released when someone is angry or frightened.
7. The _____ nerve takes electrical impulses from the brain or spinal cord to the effector
11. The _____ is the largest part of the brain which is responsible for thought and action
14. The _____ detects chemicals in the air
16. The endocrine system is made up of _____
17. Another name for the male and female reproductive glands are _____

18. A _____ is a pathway which is linked to the spinal cord and controls reflexes

19. _____ occurs when the pancreas does not produce enough insulin

20. Hormones are secreted through the _____

Down

2. The _____ is the master gland of the body which links the nervous system to the endocrine system

3. The _____ is responsible for involuntary actions like breathing and heartbeat

4. The _____ produces stimulating hormones for the other glands in the body

6. The body responds to _____ from the external environment

8. The _____ controls balance, movement and coordination

9. The nervous system is made up of the brain and _____

10. The _____ system is responsible for quick responses

12. A _____ is a gap between nerves.

13. _____ is produced to regulate the internal environment of the body.

15. A nerve cell is made up of _____