

Name: _____

Date: _____

End-of-Life Care

Across

4. A _____-_____ treatment is anything that maintains one of bodily functions in a terminally ill person. (2 words)

7. Advance directives are any oral or written _____ that a person has given about future medical care.

10. One of the goals of end-of-life care is relief from _____ and spiritual distress.

11. You can relieve the discomfort of a dry mouth with small sips of liquid, ice chips, hard candy, and _____. (2 words)

Down

1. You must _____ a terminally ill person without judging his or her decisions.

2. What does DNR stand for? (3 words)

3. Giving food and water only when it is wanted can allow chemical processes to occur in the body that actually _____ pain and discomfort.

5. Nausea, constipation, anxiety, _____, difficulty breathing, and other symptoms should be reported to the nurse so they can be addressed with medications or treatment.

6. A dying person has the right to relief from _____ and suffering..

8. The _____ model of dying says that the end of life is a time when we concentrate on making a dying person comfortable, improving the quality of life, and providing opportunities for the person to meet goals.

9. Competent adults have the right to refuse any treatment, including _____ and water.