

Energy Vocabulary

Across

4. Matter is anything that takes up space and has what?
5. An objects point of reference is called its what?
6. When Potential energy is at a high then what type of energy is at its low.
8. what states that energy cannot be created or destroyed?
11. Batteries found in a toy produce electrical energy what energy was it before its conversion?

Down

1. The type of energy that's created by stretching or compressing a material
2. When an object is high up what type of energy does this represent?
3. What type of energy creates heat?
7. Anything that uses force to move an object is an example of what?
9. what type of energy is produced from nuclear power plants?
10. The light that's produced by a phone's flashlight is an example of what energy?