

Name: _____

Date: _____

English 9 Poetry Terms

Across

2. an extreme form of exaggeration

5. the repetition of alike vowels sounds close together in lines of poetry

8. a reference to a part of history, other literature, or art to add meaning to a poem

10. two words with opposite meaning that are used together for effect and added meaning

11. the narrator of the poem (not the author); it could be an object

13. the use of vivid language to portray one of the five senses

14. a set of lines in a poem set off by spacing (not a paragraph)

15. the beat or sound of the poem when it is read out loud

16. the pattern of rhyme at the ends of lines of poetry (marked by consecutive letters of the alphabet)

Down

1. giving an object the characteristics of a "person"

3. when saying a word out loud sounds like the noise it is trying to portray

4. a rhythm used by Shakespeare and many other poets with a line of verse that has five sets of unstressed syllables followed by stressed syllables ("Two households both alike in dignity")

6. the repetition of consonant sounds close together (especially in the beginnings of words) in lines of poetry; sounds like a tongue twister

7. when two words sound similar but aren't an exact rhyme (him/home, hat/bad)

9. a comparison using "like" or "as"

12. a direct comparison without "like" or "as"