

English Fun

Across

3. A word that can stand alone with no letters in front of or at the end of it.
 4. The word given for anything we can see, feel and touch
 8. The name given to a 'describing' word.
 10. The last few letters of a word added to the end of a word to change its meaning.

11. A type of text we read in a newspaper which gives us information. It usually has a date, a title, a by-line and is true.

12. When we use expressions or say that something is something else. For eg. The man is a giant.
 13. Words used to join or connect two sentences.

Down

1. When we give something that is not living a human quality.

2. The name given to the symbols we use at the end of a sentence, to list things, capital letters, question marks etc.

5. The first few letters added to the beginning of a word to change its meaning.

6. When something is being compared to something else. For eg. As pretty as a picture.

7. An action or doing word.

9. A conversation between two or more characters in a play, interview, TV script etc.