

Name: _____

Date: _____

English Homework

Across

3. the process of figuring out what something means.
 6. the act of presenting.
 9. the art of oral communication.
 10. a speech disorder characterised by involuntary repetition.
 11. a person talking to there self and maybe oblivious to those around them.
 12. the place where some actio or event occurs.
 13. a person engaged in writing books.

14. a building where dramatic presentations take place.

17. a group of people watching or listening to a performance.

18. informal interchange of thoughts and information.

20. the act of one who speaks.

21. a strained realationship between individuals.

22. an act or instance of discussing.

Down

1. what you may performe to someone.

2. conversation in a novel or film.

4. a compelling force to change someones actions.

5. a fictional detective created by sir author conan doyle

7. a pantomime or a story containing contrast of a character.

8. meaning less repetition of movements.

15. find it hard to understand, and the world may seem confusing.

16. a meaningless repetition of what someone says.

19. developed disorder characterized by impaired social skills.