

Name: _____

English vocabulary

Across

4. thoughtfully looking at something for a long time.
5. letting drool or saliva run from your mouth.
7. meaning something sleeps in the day time and stays awake at night.
8. violent or very savage animal.
10. a part of the neck or throat.
11. thrilled or very happy and gleeful.
12. a very severe or serious topic in which may be a tragic or stressful event.
16. exaggerated illness to get out of something perhaps work or school.

18. a husband or wife, maybe a partner for animals.

20. the cause of an event to happen unexpectedly, suddenly, or quickly.

21. to make someone feel frightened or intimidated.

22. having toughness, being able to recover quickly from difficulties.

Down

1. force or pressure someone into doing something.

2. a wild and noisy disorder, or confusion.

3. a very graceful and elegant person.

6. having great power, influence, or even a strong effect.

9. uncontrollable movements, jerks, or jumpy movements.

13. acting without consideration, bad promises.

14. to avoid or get out of a responsibility.

15. if someone is confused or puzzled.

17. a rather large tooth most likely a canine tooth of a dog or wolf.

19. absolutely miserable, very unfortunate, or a humiliating situation.