

Environmental Health

Across

- 1. This type of protection is for your lungs.
- 6. the total amount of chemical in the body
- 9. The way in which a person may contact a chemical substance
- 11. a group of people who are sensitive to any hazards
- 12. Typical hazardous constituent of universal waste lamps and in seafood.

13. Swallowing

- 14. Solid or hazardous waste disposal area.

Down

- 2. Chemicals can be _____ into the bloodstream after breathing or swallowing.
- 3. Chemical considered bad at ground level, but good in upper atmosphere.
- 4. surrounding

- 5. Silicate mineral regulated by EPA and OSHA.

- 7. Any substances that enters a system where it is not normally found
- 8. The amount of substance to which a person is exposed
- 10. Occuring over a short time.